Copyright agreement

Version 1, January 25, 2010

TRA 2010 Copyright agreement

Scientific publishers and authors share a common interest in the protection of copyright; authors principally because they want their creative works to be protected from plagiarism and other unlawful uses, publishers because they need to protect their work and investment in the production, marketing and distribution of the publication written by the author. In order to do so effectively, publishers need a formal written transfer of copyright from the author(s) for each publication published. We therefore ask you to complete and return this form promptly, retaining a copy for your records. Your cooperation is essential and appreciated.

1. Publication entitled

Effective upon acceptance for publication, copyright (including all rights there under and the right to obtain copyright registration in the name of publisher, whether separately or as part of a book or otherwise) of my paper is hereby transferred throughout the world and for the full term and all extensions and renewals thereof, to

Transport Research Arena Europe 2010

This transfer includes:

- publishing of the paper on the TRA 2010 electronic CD proceedings,
- publishing of the paper abstract in the TRA 2010 Book of abstracts, and
- availability of the paper from the conference web site, for registered users only.

2. Right of authors

Transport Research Arena Europe 2010 recognizes the retention of the following rights by the authors:

1. Patent and trademark rights and rights to any process or procedure described in the publication.
2. The right of photocopy or make single electronic copies of the publication for their own personal use, including for their own classroom use, provided the copies are not offered for sale and are not distributed in a systematic way outside of their employing institution (e.g. via an e-mail list or public file server). Posting of the publication on a secure network (not accessible to the public) within the author's institution is permitted.

NOTE. — All copies, paper or electronic, or other use of the information must include an indication of Transport Research Arena Europe 2010 copyright and a full citation of the source. Please refer requests for all uses not included above, including the authorization of third parties to reproduce or otherwise use all of part of the publication (including figures and tables), to Transport Research Arena Europe 2010.

3. Authorship

If the publication was prepared jointly with other author(s), the signing author has informed the coauthor(s) of the terms of this copyright transfer and has agreed on their behalf and represents that he (she) is authorized to do so. The author shall bear the responsibility for designating the coauthor(s) and must inform Transport Research Arena Europe 2010 of any changes in authorship.

4. Warranties

The author(s) warrant(s) that the publication is the author's original work and has not been published before in any language. The author(s) warrant(s) that the publication contains no libelous or other unlawful statements, and does not infringe on the rights of others. If excerpts from copyrighted works are included, the author(s) has (have) obtained written permission from the copyright owners and will credit the sources in the publication.
